- 2. Customer warrants the accuracy and completeness of all information provided herein and acknowledges that BTX is relying on such information to extend credit terms. Prior to any change in majority ownership, management, legal structure, name and/or any material adverse change in its financial position, Customer shall immediately notify BTX in writing.
- 3. Customer authorizes BTX to obtain credit information relating to Customer from any source whatsoever, including without limitation, the banking references and trade references listed herein, prior to or after credit has been extended, to determine the creditworthiness of Customer. Upon issuance, the acceptance letter shall be fully incorporated herein.
- 5. Notwithstanding the extension of credit to Customer, BTX, in its sole discretion may withdraw, modify or terminate credit. In the event that outstanding charges owed by Customer exceed the stated credit limit, the balance in excess of the stated limit shall become immediately due and payable and Customer shall thereafter be required to pay all charges owed to BTX in excess of the stated limit prior to delivery of further goods and/or services. Similarly, no further credit will be extended by BTX to Customer until the outstanding balance is brought under the stated limit and Customer is otherwise in compliance with this Credit Application Agreement. No extension of credit in excess of the stated limit be deemed a waiver by BTX of its rights to require immediate payment of all amounts exceeding the stated limit; to terminate this agreement; or to otherwise exercise any rights BTX may have hereunder, or at law, in equity or otherwise.
- 7. BTX shall be authorized to apply payments received first to interest and then to the oldest charges. At BTX's discretion, any sums (including credits, refunds or property damage claims payments) which BTX owes Customer may be applied against any outstanding balance which Customer owes BTX.
